

Environmental protection

You want to build or extend a plant. You would like to complete the necessary licensing procedure as quickly and smoothly as possible. We check how you can fulfil the statutory requirements as cost-effectively as possible. We are at your side when negotiating modifications subject to approval with the competent authorities.

Services for plant operating companies

- Licensing management
- Environmental compatibility studies
- Emission prognoses for air pollutants
- Noise emission prognoses
- Odour emission prognoses
- Environmental remediation and optimization concepts
- Environmental due diligence
- Emissions trading

Services for licensing authorities

- Checking of licensing applications and expert opinions
- Compilation of surveys
- Preparation of licenses
- Database-supported recording and evaluation of objections
- Organization and conduction of hearings

Your benefits

You benefit from a well conceived licensing management. Make use of our experience and comply with the environmental regulations as cost-effectively as possible.