

G&P

The G&P engineering offices für engineering, plant safety and environmental protection was founded in 1990. It is an independent engineering office places on Merseburg (Saxony-Anhalt) and owns another office in Schwedt/Oder (Brandenburg).

Key activities are:

- planning and optimization of process plants (basic- and detail-engineering), construction management, putting into service
- development and audit of safety-reports and safety-concepts
- technical-economical surveys
- preparation of water protection expertises
- preparation of licensing documents