

Ingenieurbüro TUSS

Since 1991 the engineering office TUSS offers services in the fields of process engineering focussed on plant designing. Main tasks are the detection of the status quo, the conception of the plant and its components as well as the planning of technologies, the measurements of process engineering parameters and the drafting of risk studies and safety analysis.