

Techno-economic advisory services

You want to have investment decisions, revisions, or organizational questions evaluated according to technical and economic criteria. We take the economic effects into account even when defining the technical concept.

Services

- Space management (prognosis of the long-term cost of and proceeds from the development of space)
- Tender invitation management
- Technical revisions
- Energy consulting
- Preparation of expert opinions in accordance with § 6 of the German Combined Heat and Power Act (KWK-G)
- Technical/environmental due diligence
- Economic efficiency analyses, feasibility studies
- Logistics consulting | weyer special
- Implementation of quality, environment and energy management systems

Your benefits

You are provided with a solution that is convincing both from a technical and a commercial point of view.